The provided map shows the 2016 General Election for U.S. President, specifically focusing on the Clinton-Trump margin by precinct. The official results are certified by the State Canvassing Board. The map is color-coded to indicate the percentage of votes received by Clinton and Trump in each precinct, with a legend that includes categories such as Over 10%, 5 - 10%, 1 - 5%, and Tie. The Clinton-Trump margin is the difference between the percent of total votes cast for Hillary Clinton and the percent of total votes cast for Donald Trump in each precinct.