ANNUAL BENEFIT REPORT REQUIREMENTS
1. Outline the ways in which the corporation pursued and created the specific public benefit stated in the articles.

a. REFUSE2hate directly hosted “Healing Groups” beginning in 2016 which welcomed members of the community to join with others and share about themselves.

b. REFUSE2hate created on-line and Social Media communities to promote in healing.

c. REFUSE2hate conceptualized and activated what have become the four primary pillars R2H exists in support of:
   • STAND UP – REVEAL – HEAL - REFUSE

d. REFUSE2hate was conditionally approved for trademarks and copyrights with US Patent and Trademark Office in late summer 2019 which allowed for programs once on hold to move forward.
e. REFUSE2hate began marketing the campaign #LABELMEEFREE to prospective sponsors and also began meeting with key groups who would need to be engaged as part of the process. Launch at end of year was estimated for summer 2020.

f. REFUSE2hate created and began marketing a number of additional campaigns and securing the corresponding websites, social media, etc. that will span the next 2+ years.

g. REFUSE2hate created an online guide that outlined services offered by the organization along with goals and objectives.

2. Outline the extent to which that specific public benefit purpose was pursued and created a. REFUSE2hate had a significant initial impact on Social Media outlets, the introduction of which led to tens of thousands of impressions, several thousand “likes, shares and similar.”

   b. The initial introduction campaign was created because of findings from Healing Groups R2H hosted and also in collaboration with individuals and organizations who were formally interviewed as part of the process.

   c. REFUSE2hate sought to bridge connections between like organizations who promote an anti-hate platform by serving as the conduit for communication.

   d. In 2017 REFUSE2hate formalized the REFUSE2hate Foundation, a separate entity which is to be the beneficiary from REFUSE2hate, SBC.

3. Outline any circumstances that hindered efforts to pursue or create the Specific Public Benefit

   a. Primary obstacle which prevented REFUSE2hate, SBC from sharing any portion of profits with other organizations who stand in support of a similar hate-free agenda was that expenses continued to vastly exceed income in 2019.

   b. The amount of revenue realized fell short of expectation but at end of year R2H had more than $250K in funding verbal commitments for the following year.

   c. Startup costs associated with launching REFUSE2hate formally and marketing the name and brand have been significantly more than initially planned.

   d. Legal Fees associated with representing and defending our pending applications with the US Patent and Trademark office have continued to be the largest single expense.

CONCLUSION

- REFUSE2hate, SBC is projecting income to exceed expenses in 2020
- REFUSE2hate, SBC intends to launch at least 2 major campaigns in 2020.
